DESCRIPTION

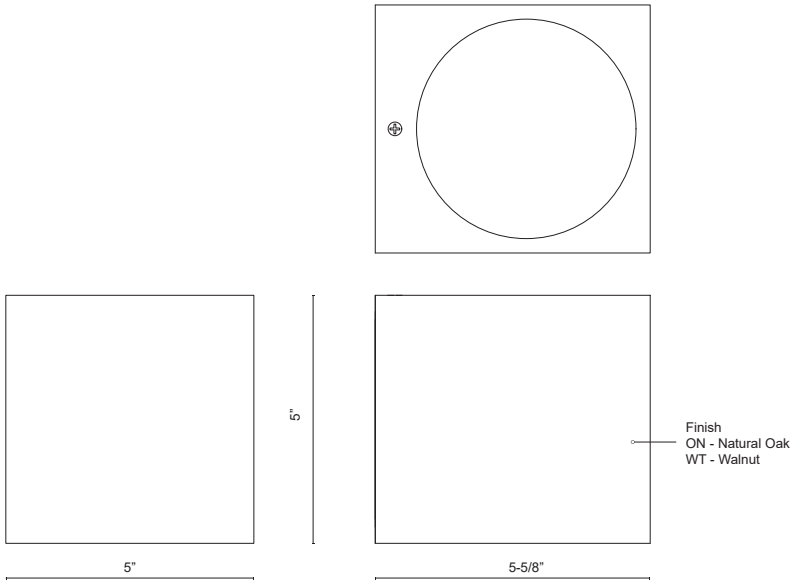

Designer Weston Drechsel reimagines natural materials for the modern home with the Bosco Lighting Collection. Crafted from solid teak wood, each angular form highlights the organic warmth and texture of nature in a contemporary silhouette. Available in two rich finishes, Natural Oak and Dark Walnut, Bosco blends effortlessly with both modern and traditional interiors. Each fixture features 5CCT selectable LED technology for customizable light color and ambiance. From chandeliers to wall sconces and flush mounts, Bosco adds timeless sophistication and organic charm to any space.

- Elegant teak wood wall sconce adds natural texture to bathrooms, hallways, and powder rooms
- 5 color temperature selectable switch (2700-5000K) allows easy control of light color and mood
- Offered in Natural Oak and Dark Walnut finishes for versatile style
- Ideal for modern, transitional, or traditional spaces seeking organic warmth
- Designed by Weston Dreschel combining clean geometry with natural materials
- Integrated LED, no need for bulbs
